Date: 2016-11-03

From: Compliance Oversight Committee

To: Executive Board

Summary of Financial Exposure and Reputational Risk

Following the internal review of donor activity and event logistics, we have identified a central coordinator responsible for approving off-book expenditures and guest travel arrangements.

Multiple high-profile individuals were routed through the same private channels, using identical legal waivers and asset managers. These arrangements bypassed standard oversight procedures and were repeatedly flagged during the review period.

The individual overseeing this process is shown below.

